

1-3 John MacArthur New Testament Commentary (MacArthur New Testament Commentary Serie)

The apostle John is really a man for our times. He wrote his three New Testament letters in a bold, direct, even dogmatic style, more so perhaps than any other New Testament writer. Although renowned traditionally as the apostle of love (and he was), he was an authoritative, uncompromising teacher and an exclusive-style instructor with a crucial message of truth versus error, which the church much needs to hear in the twenty-first century. This commentary considers John's clear, simple, unambiguous words from his three brief but profound letters. His themes, some of them reiterated more than once, emerge powerfully, such as the first letters stress on doctrinal certainty, moral clarity, and the preeminence of biblical love, along with the second letters emphasis on living the truth and the thirds on discerning friends and foes in the local church.
