

Matthew Arnold (The Oxford Authors)

The two sides of Matthew Arnolds literary achievement--the celebrated verse and prose --are brought together in this single volume. Arnolds major poems, Stanzas from the Grande Chartreuse, the love poems in the Switzerland and Faded Leaves sequences, several narrative poems, and his major elegies are found in part one of this volume. The prose selections in part two, arranged in chronological order of composition, span Arnolds entire writing career, beginning with several lively letters from his early correspondence with Arthur Hugh Clough, to his very last essay, Civilization in the United States. Throughout both the poetry and prose is heard the unmistakable voice of a man whom E.M. Forster aptly described as a great poet, a civilized citizen, and a prophet.
