

African Gifts of the Spirit: Pentecostalism and the Rise of a Zimbabwean Transnational Religious Movement

David Maxwell traces the transformation of the prophet Ezekiel Guti and his prayer band from small beginnings in the townships of the 1950s into the present day transnational business enterprise, which is now Zimbabwe Assemblies of God, Africa (ZAOGA). In particular, this book illuminates Africa's relations with American Christianities, black and white. DAVID MAXWELL is Dixie Professor of Ecclesiastical History, University of Cambridge.
