Lord Southamptons Answer to Lord George Gordon:, My Lord, HIS royal highness is out of town at present; when I have an opportunity, I will lay your letter before him. I beg leave to apprise your lordship, that the Prince of Wales (not having a court). gives no audience. I have the honour to be, my lord, Your most obedient humble servant, Southampton. Sept. 6, 1781. On Friday the 14th instant, Lord George Gordon came to the outward room at St. Jamess with a book. The lord in waiting informed him, that nobody could be permitted to deliver a book to the king without his majestys permission being first asked and obtained. Lord George appeared at the levee without the book; and after the levee was over, the lord in waiting took the kings pleasure, and signified to Lord George, that his majesty having considered Lord George Gordons letter to Lord North, announcing hisui tension to deliver a book, did not think proper to admit Lord Geo, Gordon into his presence, to present any book announced by such a letter.-!
