

Beowulf: A Play in Two Acts

Written over 1,000 years ago, Beowulf tells the story of a reluctant warrior called to rid a village of its local bully, only to see events escalate into a life-and-death struggle involving loyalty, honor, and revenge. Atkinson and Hinton add their own brand of theatricality to the mix as Beowulf journeys through salt marshes and cavern lairs battling ogres, dragons, and one miffed-off mama.
