

The Assassination of John F. Kennedy (At Issue in History)

On November 22, 1963 the United States lost its youngest president, John F. Kennedy, to a senseless assassination. This anthology explores the myriad of theories that continue to surround the mysterious death of Kennedy. The official version of the assassination is carefully analyzed for its strengths and weaknesses, and the numerous conspiracy theories are presented for examination. JFK Researchers, including a retired Air Force officer and a former district attorney, are among the contributors to this fascinating volume.
