

Conversations with Classic Film Stars: Interviews from Hollywoods Golden Era (Screen Classics)

James Bawden: Seeing the way people behave when theyre around you, is it still fun being Cary Grant? Cary Grant: I dont like to disappoint people. Because hes a completely made-up character and Im playing a part. Its a part Ive been playing a long time, but no way am I really Cary Grant. A friend told me once, I always wanted to be Cary Grant. And I said, So did I. -- from the book

In Conversations with Classic Film Stars, retired journalists James Bawden and Ron Miller present an astonishing collection of rare interviews with the greatest celebrities of Hollywoods golden age. Conducted over the course of more than fifty years, they recount intimate conversations with some of the most famous leading men and women of the era, including Douglas Fairbanks Jr., Joseph Cotten, Cary Grant, Gloria Swanson, Joan Fontaine, Loretta Young, Kirk Douglas, and many more. Each interview takes readers behind the scenes with some of cinemas most iconic stars. The actors convey unforgettable stories, from Maureen OHara discussing Charles Laughtons request that she change her last name, to Bob Hope candidly commenting on the presidential honors bestowed upon him. Humorous, enlightening, and poignant, Conversations with Classic Film Stars is essential reading for anyone who loves classic movies.
