I nsinuating I as if I would shine In name and fame by the worth of another, Like some made rich by robbing of their brother ;O r that, so fond I am of being sire, Ill father bastards, or, if need require, Ill tell a lie in print to get applause :I seorn it ;J ohn such dirt-heap never was Since God converted him. Let this suffice To show why I my Pilgrim patronize. It came from mine own heart ;so to my head, And thence into my fingers tickled ;T hen to my pen, from whence immediately On paper I did dribble it daintily. Manner and matter too were all mine own, Xor was it unto any mortal known Till I had done it. Nor did any then My books, by wits, by tongues, or hand or pen A dd five words to it, or write half a line ;T herefore, the whole, ana every whit is mine. Also for this, thine eye is now upon, The matter in this manner came from none But the same heart, and head, fingers, and pen, As did the others. Witness all good men: For none in all the world, without a lie, Can say that this is mine, excepting I. I write not this of any ostentation, Nor cause I seek of men their commendation ;I do it to keep them from such surmise, As tempt them will my name to scandalize. Witness my name, if anagram dto thee, The letters make Nu hony in a B.
