

Emotional Geology

A passionate, off-beat love story set on the bleak and beautiful island of North Uist in the Outer Hebrides. Rose Leonard is on the run from her life. Haunted by her turbulent past, she takes refuge in a remote Hebridean island community where she cocoons herself in work, silence and solitude in a house by the sea. Life and new love are offered by friends, her estranged daughter and most of all by Calum, a fragile younger man who has his own demons to exorcise. But does Rose, with her tenuous hold on sanity, have the courage to say Yes to life and put her past behind her?... EMOTIONAL GEOLOGY was shortlisted for the 2006 Waverton Good Read Award, awarded to the best first novel by a UK author. REVIEWS Lyrical, intriguing and haunting. Isla Dewar The emotional power makes this reviewer reflect on how Charlotte and Emily Bronte might have written if they were living and writing now. NORTHWORDS NOWA hymn of praise to the damaged, to the incomplete, a wonderful thing of hope. BookCrossing.com One of the most outstanding first novels I believe I've ever read. The Bluestalking Reader blog
