

The Iranian Feast

In modern-day Tehran, you can never predict how life will turn out. Part thriller, part cookery lesson, this is the story of a family struggling to deal with the challenges of a regime where secrecy and surveillance and an everyday part of life. Abbas calls together his wife and daughter and their friends and neighbours for an impromptu feast. Going in the pot are fresh herbs, spices, sweet vegetables and Elis mothers secret ingredient Kevin Dyer writes with not only a lightness of touch but also a vivid theatricality we always feel secure in his presence. The Guardian A mixture of the bitter and the sweet. A topical thought-provoking piece of entertainment. Philip Kendall, Spring Bank Arts Centre
