

Faustine

...I met the sad menopausee and offered her, at the flick of a switch, a return of beauty, youth, and desire. And - after all, Im no stinge-merchant - power and money as well. Why not? If a man, such as Dr Faustus, was offered such commodities by myself... why not a woman, in this age of equality? Emma Tennants ingenious modern-day reworking of the Faust legend describes a young womans dark discovery of just what befell her kindly long-lost grandmother. Brilliant. Penelope Fitzgerald, Evening Standard An elegant and bitter story... an angry diagnosis of consumerism, pollution, wealth, poverty and war... Times Literary Supplement It is a masterpiece. Or, as the Devil himself might say, one hell of a book. Daily Mail
