

Correspondence Between John Jay and Henry B. Dawson, and Between James A. Hamilton and Henry B. Dawson, Concerning the F?deralist (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Correspondence Between John Jay and Henry B. Dawson, and Between James A. Hamilton and Henry B. Dawson, Concerning the F?deralist Two reasons have led to the re-publication of the following letters: the first, to gratify those who, in vain, have attempted to obtain copies of the newspapers which contained them; the second, to enable the public to understand more readily the motives which have influenced Mr. John Jay in his continued and covert attacks on my character as a man and as a writer. The letters of my opponents have been printed exactly as they appeared in The Evening Post, both in punctuation and spelling. My replies, also, have been exactly re-produced, except in those very few cases in which slight typographical errors have occurred.
