

Guide to Spiritual and Religious Journeys in Quebec

This one-of-a-kind guide invites visitors to live unique experiences as they discover the spiritual sites that can be found in the various regions of Quebec. Its 15 inspiring tours reveal the exceptionally rich heritage sites that make the province a spiritual and religious tourism destination unique in North America. Conceived both for pilgrims whose travels are motivated by faith, and for travellers who are interested in architecture, art and history, this guide shines a light on countless sacred sites such as sanctuaries, basilicas, cathedrals, churches, cemeteries, Ways of the Cross, and temples of various faiths. In full colour and lavishly illustrated with magnificent photos, it highlights the beauty of Quebec's natural spaces as well as the many riches of the province's religious heritage. Lastly, the guide also delves into newer forms of spiritual tourism which offer inspiring experiences through spiritual healing, personal encounters and communion with nature.
