

Michael Jackson: A Visual Documentary 1958 To 2009 - Tribute Edition

Michael Jackson - A Visual Documentary is the most comprehensive book ever published on the worlds greatest pop superstar. Authorized by Michael during his lifetime, this brand new edition includes events surrounding his sad death in 2009. From the fifties to the present day, this is a complete day-by-day visual documentary of the remarkable and ever-changing career of the King Of Pop. At once intriguing, mysterious, dynamic and unpredictable, Jackson has developed to become the ultimate celebrity, and this sumptuous volume is packed with photos, memorabilia, anecdotes and heaps of surprises from the Jackson archives. From Steeltown to Motown, from the Jackson 5 to Invincible, Michael has performed the biggest shows, made the most spectacular videos, and been breaking records since the age of 11. His life has never moved from the public eye, and since his showstopping Grammy appearance he has dominated the pop world like no other personality. This stunning documentary boasts a remarkable level of detail, offering a complete guide to an incredible lifetime.
