

In Time of Trouble (Growing Up, Taking Hold)

Shane Everything he does seems to work out wrong. Hes failing his classes, about to be fired from his part-time job, and barely speaking to his parents. Then theres the real problem--his twin brother... Sandy Everything he does seems to be right. Hes a star athlete, student president, and parents dream child, with top marks, a great future, and many good friends. Hed never hang out with someone like... Marietta A real looker, shes Shanes girl-friend, but since Shanes dad took away his car, shes been unhappy. Maybe Shane should take a second look at... Janice Shes coming after Shane like a magnet to a fridge door. But is something fishy here? Just ask...

Ernie Hes a loner who claims to be Shanes only real friend. But will he hang in when the real trouble hits? What do you do when everything blows up in your face and you cant even trust your friends and family? How do you decide what you really want? Most important, how do you learn to trust yourself? Eighteen-year-old Shane Donahue cant relate to his twin brother or his parents, doesnt trust the guys he hangs out with or his girlfriend, and is failing his classes at school. The whole situation makes Shane feel so helpless hes considering life on the streets or suicide. Shane decides he has nothing to lose by asking God to help him try to get his life back on track, but his difficulties only increase. His father becomes angry when Shane goes to church, his friends attack him because they think hes turned on them, and his brother dates his ex-girlfriend! But thats nothing compared to Shanes being arrested for robbery and assault. However, in the midst of his troubles, Shane finds out who he is and discovers hope for the future. The book is based on Proverbs 17:17. A friend helps at all times and a brother in time of trouble.
