

Keewatin

Alex Mackenzies father disappears while on a visit to a mine in the Canadian north. Search parties fail to find him. When school breaks up for the summer, Alexs friend Suzie invites him to fly with her to Toronto to stay with her aunt. It is a plan by her parents to get Alexs mind off his missing father. In Toronto things go badly wrong. Will they be allowed to stay with their aunt, or will they be sent back? And what happened to Alexs father? Keewatin takes the reader into the Canadian wilderness accompanied by an anxious Alex, a feisty Suzie and a truck called Mog. An adventure for older children and younger teens. Parents: A safe adventure story! Read and enjoyed by 8 to 15 years
