

Beware of Virtuous Women (USA Today Bestselling Author)

The perfect daughter secrets within secrets, lies within lies. Adopted daughter Eleanor Becket is dedicated to her family and its welfare. She is also a commendable commander, and a keeper of secrets, most especially her own. Who would ever expect this fragile beauty, with her quiet ways and her unfortunate limp, to be capable of anything more than her accomplishments at embroidery and her mastery of musical instruments? Only Jack Eastwood feels the need to look more deeply at this self-proclaimed spinster, and what he sees and the long-ago crime he suspects lead both Jack and Eleanor to the very edge of desire and danger. As the Becketts feel the outside world looking ever more closely at the nocturnal activities taking place in Romney Marsh, as the Black Ghost rides yet again, Eleanor Becket is forced to risk her family, her chance at love, even her life, in one desperate gamble.
