

Loss and Gain: The Story of a Convert

John Henry Newman Cong. Orat., also referred to as Cardinal Newman, John Henry Cardinal Newman, and Blessed John Henry Newman, was an important figure in the religious history of England in the 19th century. He was known nationally by the mid-1830s. Some of Newman's short and earlier poems are described by R. H. Hutton as unequalled for grandeur of outline, purity of taste and radiance of total effect; while his latest and longest, The Dream of Gerontius, attempts to represent the unseen world along the same lines as Dante.
