

Plastic Classics 2017 Wall Calendar: The Art of Found Objects

Upcycling meets fine art in the work of British artist Jane Perkins, who re-creates iconic paintings using found objects. Jane Perkins uses almost anything she can find--buttons, plastic toys, LEGO pieces, beads, and more, to re-make iconic paintings such as Da Vincis Mona Lisa, Van Goghs Sunflowers, and Monets Waterlilies. Perkins says, I enjoy using materials which have a history, and love art with an element of fun and the unexpected. Each month of the Plastic Classics 2017 Wall Calendar features one of her colourful creations. Like in Impressionism, each image can be viewed as a whole, as well as in detail to identify some of the materials used.
