

Recent Reform Responsa

This back-in-print classic, originally published in 1963, provides a historic look back at the concerns and questions of a previous generation. Covered in these insightful questions and answers are issues related to Jewish holiday and life cycle observance, family life, synagogue life, weddings, burial, conversion, and many other topics related to every day living. Though the specific concerns may be dated at times, this collection of responsa offers insightful and timeless wisdom.
