

Redemption: Waking Up Dead (Volume 2)

Laynie is distraught over the harm that she has caused. The witch, Alzar is closing in and doom is just around the corner. Alzar and Max have a wild card of their own secretly hidden. Aden will soon pay for his evil deeds and with that the price will be the ultimate one. Laynie falls weak over the happenings in her life, but now more secrets have been uncovered and the man that she had thought was her father actually wasn't. When she learns who her father truly is, she panics. Alice tries her best to help her come to terms with everything that is happening, but Laynie refuses and disappears into a perfect little bubble inside herself, oblivious to the outside world. What Laynie doesn't know is that every moment that she stays there is making it harder for her to come back to the real world. Max calls on Aden's ghost for help, but not even the most powerful of magic can bring her back. All she wants is to not be the creature that she is. She just wants a second chance. Alzar offers Laynie a choice, but is her heart strong enough to make the right decision?
