

St. Martins Academy: The Gifted Rule

St. Martins Academy is not your normal school. Sure, youve heard that a million times on the back of a million books from a million different people. But you probably havent heard a true story from any of them.Mine is true.It started with a simple task: steal a book from the headmasters office. It ended with the realization of an intricate plot to set up a new world order where humans are a forgotten race and the gifted rule.Gifted people are the ones with the special powers like telekinesis. People like me. Why do I have to stop this plot and save the world? Because while Im the first to admit Im somewhat of a juvenile delinquent, Im pretty sure Im not a deranged psychopath bent on thrusting the world into chaos.My names Cassy Jordan. Im fourteen and Im telekinetic. My summer goals are stop the new world order freaks from destroying civilization, control my cousin, his friend and a rampaging turkey, convince the love of my life to ask me out and survive the summer. Sounds easy right? Ha, ha. Youre funny.
