

The Whole Works of the Right Rev. Jeremy Taylor, Vol. 3 of 15 (Classic Reprint)

Discourse upon that Part of the Decalogue, which the Holy Jesus adopted into the Institution and Obligation of Christianity. 1. WHEN the holy Jesus had described the characterising of Christianity, in these eight graces and beatitudes, he adds his injunctions, that in these virtues they should be eminent and exemplar, that they might adorn the doctrine of God ;for he intended that the Gospel should be as leaven in a lump of dough, to season the whole mass ;and that Christians should be the instruments of communicating the excellence and reputation of this holy institution to all the world. Therefore, Christ calls them salt, and light; and the societies of Christians, a city set upon a hill, and a light set in a candlestick, whose office and energy is to illuminate all the vicinage ;which is also expressed in these preceptive words: Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father, which is in heaven ;which I consider not only as a circumstance of other parts, but as a precise duty itself, and one of the sanctions of Christianity ;VOL.(Typographical errors above are due to OCR software and dont occur in the book.)About the Publisher Forgotten Books is a publisher of historical writings, such as: Philosophy, Classics, Science, Religion, History, Folklore and Mythology.Forgotten Books Classic Reprint Series utilizes the latest technology to regenerate facsimiles of historically important writings.
