

The London Rock Walking Tour: A Classic Rock Walking Tour through Londons Soho

A walking tour that shows you where the Beatles recorded Let it Be and gave their last live performance on the roof top, where Paul met Linda, where David Bowie recorded world famous albums, where the Rolling Stones performed, rehearsed and recorded. You will also see where Jimi Hendrix gave his last performance, where John Lennon first wore those glasses, where Elton John worked as an office boy, where someone turned down the chance to publish some of Paul Simons most famous songs, where the Sex Pistols lived and where the Whos brilliant drummer Keith Moon is remembered. No where in the world does a square mile of streets have so many famous rock stories. Whether you are interested in The Beatles, The Rolling Stones, David Bowie, Jimi Hendrix, Pink Floyd, The Kinks, The Small Faces, The Sex Pistols, Elton John, Paul Simon, The Clash, Oasis, Blur - they are all here.
