For when, for the time, ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God ;and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. THESE words are a complaint, which the apostle makes of a certain defect in the Christian Hebrews, to whom he wrote. Wherein we may observe, 1. What the defect complained of is, viz., a want of such a proficiency in the knowledge of the doctrines and mysteries of religion, as might have been expected of them. The apostle complains of them, that they had not made that progress in their acquaintance with the things of divinity or things taught in the oracles of God, which they ought to have made. And he means to reprove them, not merely for their deficiency in spiritual and experimental knowledge of divine things, but for their deficiency in a doctrinal acquaintance with the principles of religion, and the truths of Christian divinity; as is evident by several things. It appears by the manner in which the apostle introduces this complaint or reproof. The occasion of his introducing it, is this: in the next verse but one preceding, he mentions Christ sbeing a high priest after the order of Melchizedek: Called of God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek. This Melchizedek being in theO ld Testament, which was the oracles of God, held forth as an eminent type of Christ, and the account we there have of Melchi zedek containing many gospel mysteries, these the apostle was willing to point out to the Christian Hebrews. But he apprehended, that through their weak ness in knowledge, and little acquaintance in mysteries of that nature, they would not understand him ;and therefore breaks off for the present from saying any thing about Melchizedek. Thus, in verse 11, Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered; seeing ye are dull of hearing; i. e.(Typographical errors above are due to
