With this bundle, you'll receive: Woman in the Water, The Chill of the Night, Count Dorkula, I Presume?, Memory Bites, Memories Bite Harder, Memories Fade in the Light of Love. In Woman in the Water, the body of Nancy Brooks, high school swim coach, is found in the pool at the local sports complex just as her team arrives for practice. Ann Smith is called in to investigate the homicide. Ann and her Sergeant (second in command) Louise Barker search through the house and discover evidence that the murder most likely took place there, rather than at the sports complex, as was first assumed. They interview the neighbors, review the evidence and interview the girls on the team and their parents once again. In The Chill of the Night, Many things go bump in the night. These stories are a gathering of some of the most chilling, thought-provoking and wondrous tales of fright. You'll want to be cozy and secure when you dive into these depths, for more than just your nerve will be tested for these are stories meant to drive your spirit to the edge of insanity, and bring you back in time for breakfast! In Count Dorkula, I Presume?, A short story with fast pacing and a lot of heart, Count Dorkula follows a greatly misunderstood surgeon and his new assistant as they go from just a very good team to a couple. Unfortunately for them, the jealous staff of their small hospital is not thrilled with this development especially the nurse who had thought that she would be the one to end up with the tall, dark and mysterious doctor. In Memory Bites, A young boy hovers near death in a hospital room, his overly doting mother at his side and a calming voice that he hears in the mist of his unconscious mind. He recovers and is visited by the mysterious woman. The boy goes through some major life changes including being allowed to go to school like regular kids and getting in his first fight. And, as he grows closer to his strange friend more changes keep coming. In Memories Bite Harder, Annalisas quiet but quite resolute refusal of his marriage proposal hung in the air. He tried to ask several questions, all of them meaning the same thing and choked on every word. Finally, tired of his wild, staring eyes and the sound of the panicked thud of his breaking heart, she just sighed and disappeared leaving the room infinitely colder in her absence. In Memories Fade in the Light of Love, The last book in the Memories Bite series finds Peter Purcival Prescott facing down not only an enemy that he might not be equipped to handle but some information from his past that might be equally difficult to deal with. His mother has been hiding a good bit from him beyond the identity of his father and it all comes bubbling up partially during a lucid dream/memory exploration session and then through a final confrontation where Peter faces the strangest and most dangerous of family reunions ever.
